DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on April 17, 2006 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application, which would extend beyond the expiration date of US Patent No. 6,811,620 and Serial Nos. 10/799,153 and 10/675,912 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Status of the Rejections made in the Last Office Action

2. The rejection of claims 1 to 4, 6 and 7 in view of Uchida et al. (US Patent No. 6,468,365) made in the last office action mailed June 20, 2006 has been overcome by applicants' response submitted September 20, 2006. The claims are now rejected as follows.

Claim Interpretation

3. In view of the use of the open terminology "comprising" used in applicants claims 1, line 2, applicants' claims are considered to be open to any additional elements and phases.

The transitional term "comprising", which is synonymous with "including," "containing," or "characterized by," is inclusive or open-ended and does not exclude additional, unrecited elements or method steps. See, e.g., Mars Inc. v. H.J. Heinz Co., 377 F.3d 1369, 1376, 71 USPQ2d 1837, 1843 (Fed. Cir. 2004)

Art Unit: 1742

See MPEP 2111.03.

Rejections Based on Copending Application No. 10/675,797

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 1 to 4, 6 and 7 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 to 6 of copending Application No. 10/675,797. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the method claims of '797 recite a method of making a sintered product having a composition that overlaps the composition recited in the instant claims wherein there is a low R alloy and a high R alloy. Thus the sintered product recited in these two sets of claims overlap. The instantly claimed product would be obvious in view of the product produced by the method claimed in '797.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Rejections Based on Copending Application No. 10/799,243

6. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

7. Claims 1 to 4, 6 and 7 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 to 6 of copending Application No. 10/799,243. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the method claims of '243 recite a method of making a sintered product having a composition that overlaps the composition recited in the instant claims wherein there is a low R alloy and a high R alloy. Thus the sintered product recited in these two sets of claims overlap. The instantly claimed product would be obvious in view of the product produced by the method claim in '243.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

8. Claims 1 to 4, 6 and 7 are directed to an invention not patentably distinct from claims 1 to 6 of commonly assigned 10/799,243. Specifically, the method claims of '243 recite a method of making a sintered product having a composition that overlaps the composition recited in the instant claims wherein there is a low R alloy and a high R alloy. Thus the sintered product recited in these two sets of claims overlap. The instantly claimed product would be obvious in view of the product produced by the claims method in '243.

The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office normally will not institute an interference between applications or a patent and an application of common ownership (see MPEP Chapter 2300). Commonly assigned 10/799,243, discussed above, would form the basis for a rejection of the noted claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) if the commonly assigned case qualifies as prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) and the conflicting inventions were not commonly owned at the time the invention in this application was made. In order for the examiner to resolve this issue, the assignee can, under 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and 37 CFR 1.78(c), either show that the conflicting inventions were commonly owned at the time the invention in this application was made, or name the prior inventor of the conflicting subject matter.

A showing that the inventions were commonly owned at the time the invention in this application was made will preclude a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) based upon the commonly assigned case as a reference under 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g), or 35 U.S.C. 102(e) for applications pending on or after December 10, 2004.
